Some Greeks wish to see Jesus. Jesus rides into Jerusalem on a donkey. The religious leaders conspire against Jesus. Jesus clears the temple (Matthew, Mark, Luke). Jesus curses a fig tree. Jesus looks around the temple and returns to Bethany. Jesus weeps over Jerusalem. Jesus is questioned about paying taxes. The religious leaders challenge Jesus' authority. Jesus teaches a lesson from the withered fig tree. Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple. Jesus commends the widow's gift. Judas offsets to betray Jesus. Jesus questions religious leaders about the Messiah. Jesus predicts His crucifixion in two days. Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment. Jesus talks about His return and the end. The Sadducees question Jesus about the resurrection. Annas questions Jesus. Jesus is arrested in Gethsemane. Annas sends Jesus to Caiaphas. Jesus prays in Gethsemane. Peter denies Jesus the third time. Jesus speaks with His disciples and prays on the way to the Mount of Olives. Peter denies Jesus the second time. Jesus eats a last supper with His disciples. Peter denies Jesus the first time. The disciples prepare for the Passover. Pilate offers to release Jesus, but the crowd wants Barabbas instead. Jesus appears before Herod Antipas. Pilate hands Jesus over to be crucified. Pilate questions Jesus the first time. Pilate questions Jesus the second time. Judas hangs himself. The crowd calls for crucifixion. The Sanhedrin condemns Jesus. The Roman soldiers flog Jesus. The guards mock Jesus and beat Him. Jesus is crucified. They offer Jesus wine with gall, but He refuses it. Jesus dies on the cross. Jesus speaks to the weeping women. A criminal asks Jesus to remember him. Simon of Cyrene carries the cross. Bystanders mock Jesus on the cross. Jesus is led out to be crucified. Pilate puts a sign on Jesus' cross. Roman soldiers mock Jesus. Guards are posted at the tomb. Jesus' body is placed in the tomb. Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene. Joseph of Arimathea asks Pilate for the body of Jesus. Peter and John run to the empty tomb. A soldier pierces Jesus' side. Women tell the disciples about the empty tomb. Women watch the crucifixion from a distance. Women find the tomb empty. There is an earthquake, the veil of the temple is torn, and some of the dead in the tombs are raised. Jesus appears to Peter. The religious leaders bribe the guards. Jesus reconciles with Peter. Jesus provides a miraculous catch of fish. Jesus appears to the apostles including Thomas. Jesus appears to the apostles behind locked doors. Cleopas and his companion report to the apostles. Jesus appears to the women. Jesus appears to two believers on the road to Emmaus. Jesus commissions His disciples to teach and baptize all nations. Jesus ascends into heaven. Jesus appears to James. Jesus appears to more than 500 people.